NANCY

Every girl needs
her beauty rest

After learning about Mrs. DeVine's stupendous movie star past, Nancy decided to live like a movie star and go to bed late, late, LATE. But Nancy soon learned that even movie stars need their beauty rest. Follow the instructions below to create your own Do Not Disturb sign to use while catching up on some beauty rest of your own.

You will need: Instructions:

- Scissors
- A hole punch
- Ribbon

1. With the help of a parent, cut the door sign on the dotted line to separate it from the instructions.
2. Decorate your door sign any way you want. You may want to use crayons, glitter, or buttons to add pizzazz to the sign.
3. Punch holes in the upper right and left corners of the door sign.
4. Thread a piece of decorative ribbon through the holes to give your sign an extra-fancy touch. Tie the ends of the ribbon together to secure the sign.
5. When you're ready to go to bed, hang the sign on your bedroom door to let everyone know you're getting your beauty rest. Sweet dreams!
