FAMILY TIES

All Happy Families: A Memoir

JEANNE McCULLOCH

The Glass Castle meets The Nest in this stunning debut—an intimate family memoir that goes behind the dappled beachfront vista of privilege to reveal the inner lives of two wonderfully colorful, unforgettable families.

“In this elegant, searching memoir, Jeanne McCulloch peels back the glittering layers of privilege that comprise the surface of her family, and exposes the soft, complicated, tender core beneath. This is a beautiful book about love, loss, and the ravages of time. I adored it.” —Dani Shapiro, New York Times bestselling author of Inheritance

At Home with Muhammad Ali: A Memoir of Love, Loss, and Forgiveness

HANA ALI

Muhammad Ali's daughter captures the legendary heavyweight boxing champion, Olympic Gold medalist, activist, and philanthropist as never before in this candid and intimate family memoir, based on personal recordings he kept throughout his adult life.

“This is a wonderful look at an Ali we haven't seen much of in the past. He's funny (loved to do magic tricks), affectionate, and kind, and even when he was conflicted, as he was with Christmas for his Muslim family, he found a gentle, knowing path forward.” —Booklist

White Elephant: A Novel

JULIE LANGSDORF

This hilarious and observant debut novel follows the sudden turf war that erupts between neighbors in an otherwise serene suburban town, where newcomers and longtime residents alike begin to clash in conflicting pursuits of the American Dream, with trees mysteriously uprooted, fires set, fingers pointed, and lines drawn.

“While skewering its vacuity and vulgarity, Langsdorf captures the sensuous allure of confident, over-the-top American consumerism. Like Tom Perrotta’s Little Children and Maria Semple’s Where’d You Go, Bernadette, White Elephant exposes middle-class domestic malaise with a light comedic touch.”

The Last Thing I Told You:

A Novel EMILY ARSENAULT

Therapist Dr. Mark Fabian is dead. Detective Henry Peacher discovers that shortly before he died, Fabian pulled the files of two former patients: Nadine Raines who had committed a shockingly violent act when she was sixteen and Johnny Streeter, now serving a life sentence for a mass shooting. Maybe there is a decades-old connection between Nadine and Streeter.

"Intertwining strands of police-procedural and personal-confessional details set the reader up for one of the most surprising plot twists in recent memory." —The Wall Street Journal

Native Son: A Novel

RICHARD WRIGHT

- Starred review from Booklist
- Now an HBO Original Movie

Set in Chicago in the 1930s, Wright’s powerful novel is just as meaningful today as when it was written, both in its unsparing reflection of the poverty and feelings of hopelessness experienced by people in inner cities across the country and in what it means to be black in America. An undisputed classic since it was first published.

“Richard Wright’s masterpiece. . . taught me that it’s all right to have passion within your work, that you don’t need to shy away from politics in order to write fiction.” —Gloria Naylor, author of The Women of Brewster Place

I Florio Volume 1: A Novel

STEFANIA AUCI

They say that in Italy there were three great families: the Agnelli of Turin, the Pirelli of Palermo, and the Florios of Sicily. This two-volume saga, inspired by the real lives of historical figures, brings to life the dark secrets, the loves and betrayals, and the cruel acts of revenge that marked the Florios' century of influence. They were the uncrowned kings of Sicily: restless and ambitious, single-minded and determined to be richer and more powerful than anybody else. Yet their beginnings were humble. In this epic yet intimate tale of power, passion, and revenge, the rise and fall of a family taps into the universal desire to become more than who we are born as.

All About Love: New Visions

bell hooks

As bell hooks uses her incisive mind and razor-sharp pen to explore the question "What is love?" her answers strike at both the mind and heart. In thirteen concise chapters, hooks examines her own search for emotional connection and society's failure to provide a model for learning to love. Razing the cultural paradigm that the ideal love is infused with sex and desire, she provides a new path to love that is sacred, redemptive, and healing for the individuals and for a nation.

Chasing Hillary: On the Trail of the First Woman President Who Wasn't

AMY CHOZICK

For nearly a decade, award-winning New York Times journalist Amy Chozick chronicled Hillary Clinton's pursuit of the presidency. Chozick's assignments, covering Clinton's imploding 2008 campaign and then her front-row seat to the 2016 election on “The Hillary Beat,” set off a years-long journey in which the author's formative twenties and thirties became, both personally and professionally, intrinsically intertwined with Clinton's presidential ambitions. Illuminating, poignant, laugh-out-loud funny, Chasing Hillary is a campaign book unlike any other that reads like a fast-moving political novel.

Boy Swallows Universe \ El chico que se comió el universo:

A Novel \ Una novela

TRENT DALTON

• Starred reviews from Booklist, Library Journal, and Publishers Weekly

An utterly wonderful debut novel of love, crime, magic, fate, and a boy's coming of age, set in 1980s Australia and infused with the originality, charm, pathos, and heart of Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close and The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time.

"Dalton's broadly observant eye, ability to temper pathos with humor, and thorough understanding of the mechanics of plot prevent the novel from breaking into sparkling pieces. . . . This is an outstanding debut."

Un libro sobre aspiraciones

MARK MANSON

- #1 New York Times bestselling author of *The Subtle Art of Not Giving a F*ck*

Manson turns his gaze from the inevitable flaws within each individual self to the endless calamities taking place in the world around us. He dissects religion and politics and looks at our relationships with money, entertainment and the internet, and how too much of a good thing can psychologically eat us alive. He openly defies our definitions of faith, happiness, freedom—and even of hope itself.

"... Clever and accessibly conversational, Manson reminds us to chill out, not sweat the small stuff, and keep hope for a better world alive." —Kirkus

KARIN SLAUGHTER

The next installment of the Will Trent mystery series, this time pitting Will and Sara Linton against a mysterious group planning to unleash a deadly epidemic. What should be a routine admission for run-of-the-mill surgery goes horribly, tragically wrong, leaving a trail of destruction in its wake. The area goes into lockdown—for Emory is not only a major hospital, but also a stone's throw from the Centers for Disease Control, the FBI counterterrorism HQ, and a large children's hospital. Anything that happens there has city-wide—and potentially nationwide—repercussions.
