

This project explores a situation, where part origin at the lower left corner provides a good location for setup, but not so good position for calculating the bolt circle coordinates.

➡ Develop program 04051 by following these conditions:

1. Program only one tool for drilling the eight holes
2. Use a programming method that allows the coordinates in the program to be related to the bolt circle center, rather than to the lower left corner

