

43-02

Scaling Exercise

In this scaling project, three contours have to be programmed. All three are based on the dimensions of an original contour, that is not machined in this project. The tool is a $\varnothing 20$ mm end mill, used for a single contour at each depth. Use a subprogram for this project and be careful when and where the scaling is turned ON or OFF.

