Contemporary Issues in Bioethics, Law and Medical Humanities

Call for proposals

Manchester University Press welcomes proposals for projects in the Contemporary Issues in Bioethics, Law and Medical Humanities series, from researchers at all stages of their career.

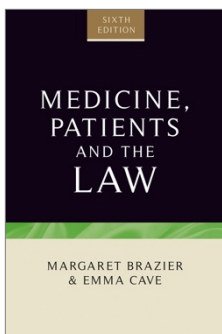

This series focuses on the strong foundations and reputation of the University of Manchester's world-leading scholars in bioethics. It includes internationally respected works on bioethics and the humanities, which consider contemporary, historical and future bioethical questions of the highest social and moral concern and interest.
