A Christian response to housing insecurity.

Grace Can Lead Us Home

A Christian Call to End Homelessness

by Kevin Nye. $18.99 USD

On any given night, more than half a million Americans and Canadians find themselves sleeping on the streets, in shelters, cars, and other places not meant for human habitation. Yet as this crisis continues to grow, it remains one of the least talked about—especially in churches. Even where compassion and empathy exist, the complexities around homelessness can make us feel stuck, overwhelmed, or numb to the existence of unhoused people in our cities and neighborhoods.

Reporting back from his work in homeless services, minister and advocate Kevin Nye introduces readers to the Christ he's met in tents, shelters, and drop-in centers. He demystifies homelessness by journeying into complex issues like affordable housing, mental illness, addiction, and more while reimagining our theological approach to these matters and educating us on how they intersect with homelessness.

This thorough and intimate book shows us that from the margins, Jesus has something to teach us all about grace—something that could change the landscape of homelessness entirely if we're ready to hear it.

Jesus Takes a Side

Embracing the Political Demands of the Gospel

by Jonny Rashid. $17.99 USD

Jesus sides with the oppressed. Will you?

Many Christians avoid taking sides on political issues. Yet Jesus stood between oppressor and oppressed. Jonny Rashid lays out the political demands of following Jesus and offers strategies for how to engage politics practically and prophetically—even if that means taking a side.

LIVING IN GOD'S LIGHT

Fall 2022: Fall of a Kingdom

Welcome to a new year of learning and growing in faith with children and youth! May the stories of God's faithfulness to the people in times of exile and restoration be a reminder of God's presence with you on this journey of teaching.

Calling on God (Psalms)

A selection of four psalms begins the quarter, providing children and youth an opportunity to experience God as one who cares deeply for their well-being and is faithful in good and bad times. Join children and youth in the spiritual practice of praying the psalms using images of God as shepherd, refuge, helper, and one who lifts up those who are bowed down with injustice.

Exile and return

The theme of God's faithfulness continues with stories of kings and prophets, exile and restoration, sorrow and hope. Children and youth will read about Solomon's building of the temple and its later destruction, imagine Ezekiel's valley of dry bones, and be inspired by the faithfulness of people as they returned from exile and rebuilt the temple. This fall, Shine provides you and your congregation's children and youth the opportunity to experience stories that can transform us into faith-filled people of God.
