Save and fill out this form to recommend an MSU Press journal subscription to your library. Email it as an attachment or send via post to the appropriate contact at your institution's library.

I recommend QED: A Journal in GLBTQ Worldmaking for the following reasons (check all that apply):

Reference: This journal is an important reference source for my work and the work of my department.

Student Use: It is vital that students can access this journal in their academic pursuits. I regularly assign articles from this journal to my students.

Benefit to Library: This is a journal of high quality and would add value to your library's collection. Its acquisition will fulfill department, faculty, and student needs.

Affiliation: I am a member of this journal's editorial board or contributed scholarship to it. I support this journal and believe it is an essential resource and outlet for my work.
