Illuminative Moments in Pacific Northwest Prose

1800 to the Present

RICHARD W. ETULAIN

The book provides an introductory overview to a vast subject through “illuminative moments” that illustrate major shifts in the literary history of the region. The book's focus is on novels, histories, and other nonfiction works that trace Pacific Northwest prose in chronological order through three periods: the frontier, regional, and post-regional eras.

White Dove, Tell Me

A Novel

MARTIN ETCHART

“This engaging novel is not only an insightful approach to the Basque legacy in the New West, but also a moving story about place and identity, with a touch of magic realism, Basque mythology, and lyricism. . . . [A]n inspiring story about strong family and community ties that coexist with a vindication of individual dreams.”

—David Río, author of New Literary Portraits of the American West

No Charity in the Wilderness

Poems

SHAUN T. GRIFFIN

“. . . [W]ith lyric intensity and rich imagery, this poet who has taken ‘a vow to undo silence’ creates a voice for those made voiceless. His deep compassion gives us a great gift: Griffin offers us an invitation to realize anew ‘how little we are without others.’”

—Paulann Petersen, Oregon Poet Laureate Emerita
