Observational Studies Publishing Agreement

This PUBLISHING AGREEMENT is dated ________________ between _______________________________________ (author name) and the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania on behalf of its University of Pennsylvania Press (hereinafter called the Press). The Press is pleased to have the opportunity to publish your contribution, titled in the journal Observational Studies (the Journal). This form, when properly completed, will provide the necessary formal agreement.

You, as author of the contribution, and the Press agree as follows:

1. The University of Pennsylvania Press undertakes to publish your contribution in the Journal named above. As a condition of publication, you hereby grant to the Press the nonexclusive worldwide right to print, publish, edit, reproduce, distribute, publicly display, and prepare derivative works based upon your open-access article, and sell—and to license the printing, publication, display, and sale of—your contribution in the Journal in all forms and media. If you have previously published this contribution in another language and assigned language rights to another publisher, please indicate that here; it will be noted as an exception to the publishing rights as indicated above: ___________________________________________________

2. The University of Pennsylvania Press, publisher of Observational Studies, will secure copyright protection by registering the Journal issue as a collective work in the name of the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania in accordance with the requirements of the copyright law of the United States. The Press acknowledges that your article will be registered in the name of either (select one):
   □ your name as the author
   □ the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania

   The Work will be distributed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International (CC BY-NC 4.0) license.

3. You represent and warrant that your contribution is original and that you are the author of it and have full power to make this agreement; that any use of Large Language Models (LLMs) or similar tools (e.g. ChatGPT) is explicitly acknowledged; that you have used reasonable care to ensure that all statements in your contribution purporting to be factual are true; that your contribution is not defamatory, obscene, or otherwise unlawful; and that it does not violate any right of privacy or statutory copyright or other personal or property rights.

4. You agree to obtain promptly, at your expense, all permissions necessary for including copyrighted material in your contribution—in print and digital editions—including poetry, song lyrics, lengthy prose extracts, letters, and other textual material under copyright, and for reproducing photographs, charts, drawings, diagrams, or other illustrative matter under copyright, and to transmit such permissions letters and credit lines with the final copies of the manuscript.
5. You will be given the opportunity to review your contribution after copy editing unless you agree otherwise. If you fail to return the edited manuscript to the editorial office with your comments within 15 days of its receipt, the Editors and the Press may assume that you consent to all editorial changes. You agree to read, correct, and promptly return to the editorial office all proofs of your contribution sent to you at the discretion of the Editors. In the event that you fail to return proofs by the deadline set by the Editors, the Press shall be free to proceed with manufacture and publication of your contribution without your corrected proofs. You further agree that the Editors may, at their discretion, disallow any or all of your alterations in proofs that are not solely corrections of errors made by the Press or the compositor.

6. Upon publication of the Work, the Press grants you an irrevocable, nonexclusive, royalty-free license to use your contribution in any book volume consisting wholly of your own work, provided that (a) you furnish prior written notice of each such use to the Press, that (b) each such use shall carry the copyright notice specified to you in writing by the Press, and that (c) each such use carries a note indicating that the Journal is the original source of publication.

7. You understand and agree that all details as to the publishing and licensing of your contribution shall be under the sole control of the Press and its agents.

You agree that you will receive no royalty under this Agreement.
