The Art of the Tea Towel
100 of the Best Designs
by Marnie Fogg
Invented in the 19th century, the tea towel has become a form of domestic art. With full-page images and close-up details, this fascinating visual history showcases 100 of the best tea towel designs from the 1930s to today. They come from such designers as Lucienne Day, Emma Bridgewater, Pat Aleck, Cath Kinston, and Angela Harding, as well as from key stores like Selfridges.

Indigo
Cultivate, Dye, Create
by Douglas Luhanko & Kerstin Neumuller
Explore the gorgeous possibilities of dyeing with indigo! This stunning and practical handbook takes you through it all: growing the plant; mastering warm or cold dyeing; making multicolored projects; and troubleshooting potential problems. Create intricate moyo-sashi and hitome-sashi embroidery, patchwork quilts, resist-dyed patterns, and more. Both beginners and experienced dyers will be inspired to work with these innovative recipes and unique projects.

Feminist Cross-Stitch
40 Bold and Fierce Patterns
by Stephanie Rohr
Crafty activists will love this snarky book with its 40 irreverent, feminist-themed cross-stitch patterns. Whether you want to proudly announce that you’re a nasty woman or remind others that a woman’s place is in the revolution, you’ll find edgy slogans, sharp one-liners, and cheeky images that make fabulous wall art or gifts. An illustrated basics section provides beginners with information on materials, tools, techniques, and framing your finished pieces.

Feminist Felties
21 Inspiring and Empowering Projects in Felt and Fabric
by Missy Covington
Sew badges honoring women’s suffrage icons, express your outrage by fashioning a “Stick It to the Man” pincushion, and show your solidarity with a Rosie the Riveter-inspired coin purse. Feminist craftivists will embrace these easy and empowering projects, accompanied by cheeky descriptions and fun facts. An illustrated Tools & Techniques section covers the essential sewing skills so even absolute beginners can celebrate feminism.

Bound by Hand
Over 20 Beautifully Handcrafted Journals
by Erica Ekrem
Following Erika Ekrem’s successful Bound comes this stunning collection of 20 projects for handmade journals, some using repurposed and found materials. Ekrem provides instructions for making accessories like tassels, and for adding decorative inking, stamping, and stitching. Each beautifully artistic journal—including a refillable booklet for a prolific writer—is designed for a specific purpose or hobby, and features inspiring journaling prompts.

From ballerina slippers to basketball sneakers, this adorable collection features 16 booties that mimic actual adult styles. Created for babies from 0 to 9 months, every design is quick and easy—and they all use the same sole construction. Plus, these patterns don’t require much yarn, so knitters can dig into their stash. With their fun embellishments, these tiny shoes will leave everyone cooing in delight.

Explore traditional Shetland lace knitting with expert teacher Brooke Nico! She shows how three simple motifs—Feather and Fan and Old Shale; Acre and Razor; and Horseshoe and Leaf—can yield lovely items that range from fashion, to accessories, to home décor. Step-by-step photos and accessible instructions help beginners grasp each stitch, and the projects grow progressively more difficult as knitters become more skilled.

Enjoy hours of hand-lettering fun with this colorful and quirky workbook! Whether it’s writing with unusual materials (like coffee), working with strips of paper, painting watercolor clouds to outline your letters, or using masking tape to form designs, the interactive prompts will expand your creative horizons. Throughout, you’ll find plenty of practice pages for experimenting, inspiration, and helpful tips.

From a Hula Hoop Wreath and Sequined Bomber Jacket to a Cherry Blossom Vase and Tulip Folk Cushion, these 25 projects will bring floral joy into your world! Using both real and handmade flowers, leading stylist Hannah Read-Baldrey shows how to add a beautiful botanical touch to home decor, clothing, accessories, gifts, parties, and more, for unique, on-trend results. It’s a gorgeous celebration of creativity for every skill level.

The “LITTLE BIT OF...” Series
Easy-To-Use Introductions to Spiritual Wisdom

From astrology and mindfulness to palmistry and yoga, every enlightening guide in the successful “Little Bit of” series covers a perennially popular topic. Written by expert authors, they break down complex spiritual subjects into bite-size pieces of accessible, actionable information. Filled with fun illustrations throughout, these colorfully packaged books make wonderful gifts.

A Little Bit of Astrology
An Introduction to the Zodiac
by Colin Bedell
Explore the zodiac, and see how it affects your life! Astrology is an ancient art in which the movements of the stars and planets can divine the future. Find out more about the practice, its history, and each of the 12 sun signs—and then follow the detailed information on how to create a natal chart and use it to craft personalized horoscopes.

A Little Bit of Mindfulness
An Introduction to Being Present
by Amy Leigh Mercree
Mindfulness can keep us centered, calm, and energized—no matter how much the fast-paced outside world keeps distracting us. Thanks to Amy Leigh Mercree’s straightforward and engaging introduction, beginners can master this spiritual practice. She teaches methods for staying in the moment, cultivating inner peace, accessing a deeper creativity, and creating a healthier body, along with rituals that support these mindfulness techniques.

A Little Bit of Palmistry
An Introduction to Palm Reading
by Cassandra Eason
By studying the hand’s shape and lines of the palm, you can divine your own—or someone else’s—past, present, and future. Cassandra Eason lays out the basics of this ancient practice by discussing the importance of “life lines,” “heart lines,” and other truths written in our palms. It’s a fascinating way to discover more about our own lives and the lives of others.

A Little Bit of Yoga
An Introduction to Postures and Practice
by Meagan Stevenson
Today, yoga is embraced by many as a means of enhancing physical, mental, and spiritual health. It can calm, strengthen, increase flexibility, and improve mental clarity through deep breathing and poses. This accessible introduction presents the history and philosophy of the form, along with basic poses—including “Downward Facing Dog,” “Warrior,” and “Tree”—and advice on incorporating them into a daily exercise program.

Key Selling Points
- New entries in the successful series, which has sold over 100,000 copies
- Easy-to-understand book filled with helpful exercises

Shinrin-Yoku
The Healing Art of Forest Bathing
by Oliver Luke Delorie
Discover a mindful way of walking that heals the soul, mends the heart, and enhances your well-being. Fresh forest air has cancer-fighting chemicals called phytoncides that can lower blood pressure, decrease stress, and reduce muscle tension. With 75 inspirational quotes, this guide shows you how to benefit from "forest medicine" by staying present in the moment and letting your senses bathe in all nature has to offer.

Ikigai
Discover Your Reason for Being
by Justyn Barnes
What is ikigai? It’s a combination of what you love, what the world needs, what you do best, and—yes—what you can be paid for. Ikigai is your reason to get up every morning, your true purpose. With the help of this beautiful book, you can find your ikigai ... and discover the secret to a happy, mindful, and meaningful life.

Wabi Sabi
Finding Beauty in Imperfection
by Oliver Luke Delorie
The Japanese concept of wabi sabi helps you let go of judgment, see the harmony in the unfinished, fleeting, and simple things in life, and find beauty everywhere. Using drawings, quotes, and photographs, this book helps you understand the essence of this idea and celebrate its spirit by embracing gratitude and self-acceptance, trusting in time, focusing on what matters most, and celebrating tradition.

Cosmopolitan Sexopedia
The Ultimate A to Z Guide to Getting it On by Editors of Cosmopolitan Cosmo knows: people ALWAYS want info about sex. And this frank and frisky “sexopedia” gives it all. No subject is off-limits or too risqué, from anorgasmia and cosplay to scissoring and sex toys. These entertaining and informative pages provide insight into the biology of desire, the complexities of gender—and most important to readers—navigating new sexual adventures, along with myth-busting Q&As, tip boxes, stats, and cross-references to discover more!

The Kama Sutra
The Classic Guide to Love
The Kama Sutra is a timeless exploration of love, marriage, and sex. While famous for its erotic presentation of sexual pleasure, it addresses many topics, from what to look for in a wife to how a woman can learn to control men. This stunning abridged edition features extracts from each chapter, illustrated with more than 30 classic Indian paintings from a sixteenth-century edition of the book.

365 Days of Smiles
What makes you smile? An adorable kitty peering out from under a blanket? Snowmen lined up in a row, all holding their brooms high? A man sitting by the dock dressed in a dragon costume? With 365 humorous photographs and accompanying quotations, this cheerful collection serves up sheer joy. Dip into it every day to make life just a little brighter.

Baby Body Language
100 Ways to Understand Babies & Toddlers
by Emma Howard
Understanding a baby's telltale postures and gestures can make parents more effective and aware. This easy-to-use reference offers essential insight into a child's thought processes, covering common issues ranging from teething and potty training to separation anxiety and sibling rivalry. Parents and caretakers will feel more confident in their ability to interpret a child's behavior, spot signs of anxiety, and head off tantrums.

A Matter of Style
Intimate Portraits of 10 Women Who Changed Fashion
Text by Paolo Saltari, edited by Valeria Manferto De Fabianis, preface by Anna Molinari
A Matter of Style documents the unforgettable lives of ten female icons of style and elegance who revolutionized the concept of femininity, captivated entire generations, and remain inspiring models of beauty. An extraordinary collection of photographs brings these women back to life: Coco Chanel, Katharine Hepburn, Grace Kelly, Audrey Hepburn, Brigitte Bardot, Marilyn Monroe, Jacqueline Kennedy, Mary Quant, Twiggy, and Lady Diana.

New Dress Code
Fashion Rules for the Modern Man
by Giuseppe Ceccarelli, photographs by Angela Improta Through superb photography and expert commentary, this fashion guide looks at the full range of menswear today. The subjects range from CEOs to artists to factory workers, and their style-savvy choices reveal how to do such things as modernize a black-tie outfit and reinterpret the suit. Step by step, each chapter explains the rules of dressing well . . . without sacrificing comfort, creativity, and individuality.

The Most Influential Women of Our Time
by Chiara Pasqualetti Johnson
These 50 women pursued their ambitions and dreams—even when the world told them they shouldn’t. They experienced triumph and tragedies, and lived lives as thrilling and moving as any novel. Ranging from artists, designers, and actresses to entrepreneurs, scientists, and activists, the women include Maria Montessori, Amelia Earhart, Coco Chanel, Simone de Beauvoir, Rosa Parks, Eva Perón, Josephine Baker, Jane Goodall, and Malala Yousafzai.

The American President
A Complete History
by Kathryn Moore
Historian Kathryn Moore presents a riveting narrative of each president’s experiences in and out of office, along with illuminating facts and statistics about each administration, timelines of national and world events, astonishing trivia, and more. Together, these details create a complex and nuanced portrait of the American presidency, from the nation’s infancy to today.

Darwin
The Story of the Man and His Theories of Evolution by John van Wyhe
Darwin takes a look at the incredible scientist who forever altered our view of life on earth—his life, groundbreaking publications, far-flung travels, and theories on evolution. More than 160 stunning images include diary entries, letters, handwritten notes, and sketches from his famous works. In compelling detail, this illustrated biography covers both Darwin’s scientific career and his personal struggles, allowing us to truly understand the human being.

Einstein
The Man, the Genius, and the Theory of Relativity
by Walter Isaacson
No one has contributed as much to science in the last century as Albert Einstein. Drawing on new research and reproducing documents only recently made available, Einstein reveals the process behind the work and the man behind the science: his experiments in Germany, his marriages and children, his role in the development of the atomic bomb, and his involvement with civil rights groups.

Queen Elizabeth II
A Celebration of Her Life and Reign
by Tim Ewart
Written by ITV’s former Royal Editor, Queen Elizabeth II examines the life and reign of one of the United Kingdom’s best-loved monarchs. With unique images from the Royal Archives, this beautifully illustrated book covers everything from royal tours to state visits, day-to-day engagements to grand occasions. It examines the remarkable events that have unfolded during the Queen’s rule, and how she maintains traditions stretching back millennia.

The New York Times Book of Politics
by Andrew Rosenthal, Foreword by Maureen Dowd
In today’s turbulent world, The New York Times’s political reporting and advocacy for freedom of the press is more relevant than ever. This anthology explores the newspaper’s political coverage from 1851 to today, and includes everything from memorable campaigns and elections to controversial legislation, scandals, and domestic and international issues. Compiled by famed New York Times editor Andrew Rosenthal, it contains approximately 80 stories, 45 illustrations, commentary, and annotations.

The Unstoppable Ruth Bader Ginsburg
American Icon
by Antonia Felix
On the 25th anniversary of her appointment to the Supreme Court, this unofficial retrospective celebrates the “Notorious RBG”—Ruth Bader Ginsburg! Not only does she possess one of the greatest legal minds of our time, she has become a pop culture icon. With more than 100 photographs, quotes, inspiring speeches, and insightful commentary, this tribute to her achievements covers her younger years, early professional life, marriage, many firsts, landmark cases, and the prejudice she overcame to reach the pinnacle of her field.
Maps of London & Beyond
by Adam Dant, introduction by The Gentle Author Award-winning artist Adam Dant’s maps of London and beyond are beautiful, subversive, and funny. From “London Enraged,” a history of rioting in the city, to maps of high-class coffee clubs and local slang over the centuries, Dant’s illustrations illuminate English social and cultural history. Published in conjunction with the popular Spitalfields Life, this large-format volume fully reveals the charming, often-humorous details in his work.

Victorian Maps of England
County and City Maps of Thomas Moule
For the first time in a generation, 60 of Thomas Moule’s mid-nineteenth-century maps are beautifully reproduced in a large-format volume. They capture England at a time when the Industrial Revolution transformed the country—but also celebrate the past through pastoral or monument views. Along with contemporary descriptions, the book explores Moule’s career and positions him alongside fellow Victorian pioneers, including Turner, Wedgewood, and Wordsworth.

B-17 Flying Fortress
by Robert Jackson
Designed in the mid-1930s, the Boeing B-17 became a mainstay of Allied bombing raids against Nazi Germany. B-17 Flying Fortress gives a superbly illustrated account of the aircraft from its first appearance to its retirement. It covers the B-17’s design and development; the units that operated this legendary bomber; how missions were flown; and the aircraft’s wartime career. A final chapter details the B-17 variants.

The Treasures of British History
by Peter & Dan Snow
Take a spirited tour of British history as told through 50 key documents, including the Magna Carta, Hitler’s letter to Chamberlain agreeing never to go to war, and a ticket stub to the Beatles’ first concert. Celebrated historians Peter and Dan Snow explore the implications and impact of these treasures, which they personally selected from The National Archives, the British Museum, the British Library, and the National Records of Scotland.

The Great Explorers And Their Journeys of Discovery
by Beau Riffenburgh
Chart the Golden Age of Exploration, from the Vikings and early Chinese travelers to the discovery of the Americas and the eventual circumnavigation of the globe. Covering professional explorers, botanists hunting for undiscovered plants, missionaries spreading Christianity, pioneering women, and the aristocratic and downright eccentric, this stunning volume recounts both familiar and unfamiliar voyages through beautiful maps and plans in the explorers’ own hand.

Warplanes of World War II
Fighters • Bombers • Ground Attack Aircraft
by Robert Jackson
From Germany’s Junkers Ju 52 and Japan’s Mitsubishi Zero to USA’s Grumman Hellcat and the UK’s Bristol Blenheim, Warplanes of World War II provides a close look at 50 key aircraft from World War II. They all appear in detailed large-format side-on color photographs, with notes on the craft’s unique features. Information on each plane’s development, manufacturing history, and technical profile accompany additional photographs and a specification panel.

Tanks
The History of Armoured Warfare
by Robin Cross & David Willey, foreword by Dan Snow
In 1916, for the first time, the tank participated in a small engagement on the Somme. Despite its shortcomings, it altered the course of World War I. Tanks charts the weapon’s first century, from its early stumbling attempts to today’s lethal killing machines: the technical developments, the various models, the tacticians who used it best, and the famous battles where they played a role.

Civil Aircraft
300 of the World’s Greatest Civil Aircraft
by Robert Jackson
Ranging from the earliest pioneers to today’s massive passenger jets, Civil Aircraft features 300 non-military planes used for tourism and commerce—including the Concorde, Boeing 737 and 747, Learjet, Tiger Moth, and Jetstream. All the featured aircraft are showcased in full-color, profile art and accompanied by detailed specifications tables. Accompanying text for each plane summarizes its development and service history.

Brian May’s Red Special
The Story of the Home-Made Guitar that Rocked Queen and the World
by Brian May with Simon Bradley
In 1963, Brian May and his father started to build the Red Special—an electric guitar meant to outperform anything commercially made. Here, Brian talks about his one-of-a-kind instrument, which he played on every single Queen album and during the band’s amazing shows. Along with original diagrams, sketches, and notes, May includes a great selection of photographs of himself with the guitar as well as close-ups and X-rays.

The Cure
A Perfect Dream
by Ian Gittins
After debuting in 1978 with a brash single pulled from the pages of Camus, the Cure, led by Robert Smith, recorded a series of brooding albums, drawing the world’s attention to goth rock. But they resisted categorization, and subsequent albums attracted new fans worldwide. Then, with the grand and somber Disintegration, they achieved global domination. This essential keepsake tells the story of the Cure—from the angular riffs of “Boys Don’t Cry” and “A Forest,” through the perfect simplicity of “Lovesong” and “Friday I’m in Love,” to headlining some of the world’s biggest music festivals—in beautiful, eye-catching color.

Elton John
The Biography
by David Buckley
Meticulously researched and drawing on many new original interviews with friends and associates, Elton John is the first serious, but also page-turningly entertaining, biography of the Queen Mum of Pop. It’s now cool to acknowledge John’s enormous influence on the music business, his impact on the struggle for LGBTQ rights, and his efforts to fight AIDS. Fully revised and updated, this is the definitive look at a showbiz legend.

Guitar Chords
150 Essential Guitar Chords
by Ted Fuller & Julian Hayman
Whether you’re just learning guitar or brushing up, this pocket-sized guide teaches you the most popular major and minor guitar chords required to play everything from rock and pop to folk and classical. Each entry gets a detailed color diagram with color-coded dots for the finger positions, explanatory text, and a color picture showing the chord being played on the guitar.

Ed Sheeran
Writing Out Loud
by Caroline Sullivan
Ed Sheeran is at the very top of the pop-music world, and this book is a must-have for the fans who love the beatboxing guitarist from Halifax. Going behind the scenes to uncover the stories behind Sheeran’s award-winning music, it analyzes his groundbreaking albums; relects on Sheeran’s life, talent, and inspiration; and provides refreshing insights into his massive worldwide success.
Les Miserables: The Story of the World’s Longest Running Musical in Words, Pictures and Rare Memorabilia by Benedict Nightingale & Martyn Palmer, foreword Cameron Mackintosh

Les Miserables is the world’s longest-running musical, and this stunning volume commemorates 33 years of smash success. Benedict Nightingale examines the show’s entire legacy, moving from Victor Hugo’s original novel all the way to the movie adaptation, and reveals why Les Mis captured hearts and imaginations. Images of special memorabilia include annotated scripts, original costume sketches, and design notes for the 2012 film.

by Jason Solomons

Woody Allen has celebrated more than 50 years of filmmaking, averaging one movie per year. This quintessential, stunningly illustrated, and updated guide to Allen’s lifetime of work looks at every one, including Cafe Society (2016) and Wonder Wheel (2017). In addition to interviewing Woody, critic Jason Solomons looks at the impact of Allen’s comedy, his work as an actor and writer, and his profound effect on popular culture.

Pawfect Friends

Whether they’re sharing a food bowl, slumbering together in the same bed, going for walks as a pair, or even giving piggyback rides, cats and dogs do make Pawfect Friends. Ninety of the sweetest photographs ever taken capture these best buddies as they play, keep a sleepy eye out for each other, and even put up with each other’s eccentricities. They’re irresistible!

Weird Ghosts

True Tales of the Eeriest Legends and Hair-Raising Hauntings Across America

Compiled by Joanne Austin, Presented by Mark Moran and Mark Sceurman

This spooky, spine-tingling collection of supernatural stories from across the US will tantalize the paranormal palate of anyone fascinated by haunted houses, ghostly graveyards, historic haunts, or spirited saloons. Some of these spots are open to the public, while others allow no visitors. Witnesses tell terrifyingly true tales of cursed roads, ghoulish schools, eerie eateries, and more—so prepare to be scared!

Pugs in Space

One small step for man, but a giant leap for pugkind! Pugs in Space celebrates all that is gravity-free about Earth’s best-loved canines as these lovable dogs fly to the stars. From the first pug on the Moon, to weightless pugs on the International Space Station, to pugs on a spacewalk, each of these 45 photomontages comes with space and pug facts.
Cats Gone Bad
Can a cat be an accessory to a prison break? (It can.) Would your precious pet turn violent? Yes—a couple in Seattle had to call the police to save them from their ferocious feline. From cat burglars to terrorizing tabbies, meet the funniest furry felons in the Purrritzer Prize-winning Cats Gone Bad. Each spread features a photograph or photomontage of an erring kitty.

Dogs Gone Bad
In 1924, a Labrador was sentenced to life in Pennsylvania Penitentiary for murdering the governor’s cat. (He was framed.) In 2010, a dozy guard dog was retired from a bar after he slept through their only burglary in 12 years. Every animal lover will lap up these doggone funny tales of imperfect pooches who run away, eat religious offerings, and tear up Christmas.

Embarrassing Sexual Misadventures

Allie All Along
by Sarah Lynne Reul
Poor Allie! She’s in a rage, stomping and smashing, throwing a tantrum, and having a fit. Is there a sweet little girl hiding somewhere under all the angry layers?

“What appears to be a simple story upon first glance actually offers uncomplicated yet practical remedies for helping a child deal with a strong emotion.” — Booklist [Starred review]

Arty!
The Greatest Artist in the World
by William Bee
Join Arty the frog and find out how he became the world’s greatest artist! As Arty creates a series of record-setting masterpieces, he ends up in some strange and funny situations, from balancing on a stepladder at the top of Mount Everest to being strapped to the wing of a supersonic plane. Kids will laugh at Arty’s antics . . . and feel inspired, too.

Bake Like Mommy
by Lisa Stickley
Measur[e, sift, pour, mix: it’s baking time for Poppy and Mommy! Whether they’re whisking merengues, whipping up brownies, or making a Swiss roll, Poppy loves helping her mom in the kitchen. There are so many interesting things to play with, including a sieve that makes flour fall like snow. What fun! This beautiful book is perfect for little girls who want to be “just like Mommy.”

Business Pig
by Andrea Zuill
Right from the start, everyone at the barnyard knew Jasper was different: “What have we here is a gen-u-WINE Business Pig!” No playing in the mud for him; Jasper prefers bookkeeping and charts. Most of all, he longs for a forever home. But no matter how many resumes Jasper hands out, no one adopts him. Can this business pig find that special person who means business, too?

Even Superheroes Make Mistakes
by Shelly Becker, illustrated by Eda Kaban Even superheroes slip up and err. When that happens, do they complain or give up in despair? NO! Whether they’ve nabbed the wrong guy by mistake or bashed into a planet while zooming through space, all superheroes “fess up their mess-up and keep on saving the world in the most super way! This follow-up to Even Superheroes Have Bad Days teaches kids another humorous lesson in overcoming adversity.

Guess What’s Behind the Door?
by Agnese Baruzzi
What could be behind the door? Oh, no: it looks like a monster’s sharp teeth! But guess again. When you peek inside you’ll see there’s nothing scary at all—just a fancy design painted on a drum. Every page lets kids peer through the keyhole and get a delicious shiver . . . until they discover a happy surprise waiting for them.

How to Become a Knight (in Ten Easy Lessons)
by Todd Tarpley, illustrated by Jenn Harney
Prepare the shining armor: the king needs a knight! Sir Simpleton has a rule: no books allowed! And it’s all because of a fearsome dragon, who comes in the night to steal every book and add it to her huge pile. Only Rosehilda says, “I’m not afraid!” and vows to challenge the creature who terrorizes her village. Will she be able to convince the dragon that books are for reading, not hoarding?

The Book Dragon
by Kell Andrews, illustrated by Éva Chatelain
The town of Lesser Scrump has a rule: no books allowed! And it’s all because of a fearsome dragon, who comes in the night to steal every book and add it to her huge pile. Only Rosehilda says, “I’m not afraid!” and vows to challenge the creature who terrorizes her village. Will she be able to convince the dragon that books are for reading, not hoarding?

How to Become a Knight (in Ten Easy Lessons)
by Todd Tarpley, illustrated by Jenn Harney
Prepare the shining armor: the king needs a knight! Sir Simpleton has a week to train young Sam for the job— but he gets everything wrong, fighting a bored cow instead of a fiery dragon and seeking wisdom from a bearded goat . . . instead of a wizard. Will Sam succeed in spite of his “teacher”? Kids will love the wildly funny illustrations and watching a wily child outsmart a delightfully silly adult.
How to Feed Your Parents
by Ryan Miller, illustrated by Hatem Aly Who’s feeding whom? Matilda Macaroni loves to try new foods! Unfortunately, her parents don’t. They only like pizza delivered, burgers from a bag, and noodles from a box. What’s a girl with adventurous tastes to do? The engaging heroine of this fun, twisted picture book manages to turn the tables on her finicky parents and teach them that dinner can be more than chicken nuggets. There’s also a recipe for quiche that young cooks can try!

If You’re Going to a March by Martha Freeman, illustrated by Violet Kim “If you’re going to a march, you’re going to want a sign”—and this cheerful, introductory handbook, inspired by author Martha Freeman’s own experiences, it addresses many of the questions kids might have: What should I wear? How will I get there? Where can I go to the bathroom? Is it okay to dance? [It is]! All the while the text focuses on our Constitutional right as Americans to assemble . . . whatever our political point of view.

Luna and the Moon Rabbit
by Camille Whitcher
Inspired by Asian folklore (Moon Rabbit) and the films of Studio Ghibli, this magical tale follows a young girl who befriends the “moon rabbit” and accompanies him on a nighttime adventure through otherworldly landscapes. Parents and children alike will be mesmerized by the enchanting illustrations and a soothing bedtime story that explores the power of imagination, the importance of friendship, and the beauty of the natural world.

Mirabel’s Missing Valentines
by Janet Lawler, illustrated by Olivia Chin Mueller Poor shy Mirabel trembles at the thought of Valentine’s Day. Yet the little mouse crafts her cards with a heart on every one. As she nervously hurries to school, she doesn’t notice the valentines falling out of her bag! But with a little holiday kindness, the lost valentines make their way back to her . . . and bring joy into the lives of all who found them, too. This wonderful tale of overcoming insecurity will make its way to children’s hearts.

I Love My Baby
by Sebastien Braun
I kiss my baby every morning. I give my baby big snuggly hugs. Throughout the animal kingdom, from swans and bunnies to foxes and polar bears, parents love their babies. And they show it with sweet surprises, cuddly naps, and by always keeping their little ones cozy and warm. This is the perfect book for moms and dads to share with the babies they love.

The Itchy-saurus
The Dino with an Itch That Can’t be Scratched
by Rosie Wellesley
When T Rex gets a terrible itchy red rash, all he can do is scratch, scratch, scratch! Now he’s no longer Tyrannosaurus, he’s ITCHY-SAURUS. He can’t sleep. He can’t eat. And that’s driving him wild and making him mean. The only one who could step in and soothe his skin is Doc Bill the Platypus. But is Bill brave enough to help a big, angry dinosaur?

Mission Defrostable
by Josh Funk, illustrated by Brendan Kearney Brrr! There’s a frost in the fridge—and it’s hardened Pudding Pond and frozen Yogurt Falls. Agent Asparagus is on the case, and she begs Lady Pancake and Sir French Toast to join her superspy team. But when the enemy snatches Asparagus, Pancake and French Toast have only one dough man to turn to for help: the evil Baron von Waffle! Will he help them save the fridge . . . or are they doomed to become frozen food?
My Best Friends
by Leilani Sparrow, illustrated by Dan Taylor
What kind of friends do you have? And what kind of friend will you be? In this endearing, adorably illustrated story, a little bear discovers the many meanings of friendship. And whether it’s a cuddle-by-the-fire friend, a party friend for special days, a wet friend to share an umbrella, or a pet friend at home, he loves each and every one.

The Remarkable Pigeon
by Doreen Brouwers
When a pigeon visits the aviary, he feels humbled by the other birds—hummingbirds that fly backwards, parrots with bright feathers, songbirds that sing so sweetly. But then he realizes he possesses something precious that they don’t: his freedom to fly! This thought-provoking, exquisitely illustrated book will enchant children and teach them to celebrate who you are and what you have.

Picking Pickle
by Polly Faber, illustrated by Clara Vulliamy
Looking for a pet? Take a guided tour of the dogs’ home with one characterful canine! He’s been there the longest and knows everyone, so he’ll help you find the perfect companion. Will it be hungry Harvey? Clever Dumpling? Sporty Boo-Boo? What a pickle! With gorgeous illustrations from Clara Vulliamy, and laugh-out-loud text from Polly Faber, this book is guaranteed to touch your heart.

The Street Cat Gang
by Catherine Metzmeyer, illustrated by Gregoire Mabire
In the big city, a tiny kitten longs to join a gang of grown-up cool cats. But they just tell him to stay away: “You’re too small. You’ll get under our feet.” Then, the feline crew gets hopelessly trapped—and it’s suddenly up to the kitten to save the day and prove that even the teeiniest creature can be a superhero!

Thunder Pug
by Kim Norman, illustrated by Keika Yamaguchi Welcome back the perfect pug-and-pig pair: Percy and Petunia. The two besties are inseparable—until Petunia wins a blue ribbon at the fair. Suddenly she’s too busy to play anymore. So when lonely Percy finds a faded comic book, he takes on a new persona: THUNDER PUG! But what’s a superhero without a sidekick? Will a little “Pink Lightning” (aka Petunia) come to his rescue?

No Frogs in School
by A. LaFaye, illustrated by Eglantine Ceulemans Hoppity pets, hairy pets, scaly pets: Bartholomew Botts loves them all. And he doesn’t want to go to school without one. Unfortunately, when Bartholomew brings his brand-new frog to class, his teacher, Mr. Patanoose, declares: No frogs in school! How will Bartholomew keep his animal friends close at hand . . . and follow Mr. Patanoose’s rules, too? Illustrated with energetic and humorous artwork, this back-to-school story will be a favorite with every animal-loving kid!

The Book of Fall
by Agnese Baruzzi
What is fall? The wind rises and we get brightly colored leaves on the trees, pumpkins ready for harvest, mushrooms to gather, and fruits like the pomegranate to eat.

The Book of Spring
by Agnese Baruzzi
In spring, nature awakens. This charming board book captures that new life, as fields, flowers, and trees blossom; baby lambs and bunnies enter the world; and delicious cherries and strawberries ripen.

The Book of Summer
by Agnese Baruzzi
Here comes the sun . . . and summer! Put on your sunglasses and enjoy the heat at the beach, where you can dig up the sand with your shovel and pall and see starfish in the sea. And don’t forget the seasonal treats like watermelon and ice cream—yum!

The Book of Winter
by Agnese Baruzzi
Brrr! Winter’s come and it’s shivery cold. But it’s also fun to play in the snow, drink hot chocolate by the fire, go on a sleigh ride, and, of course, celebrate Christmas with a tree and gifts. Just remember to wear your coat, hat, scarves, and gloves!

A Celebration of the Seasons: Goodnight Songs
by Margaret Wise Brown

Chugga Chugga Choo Choo
by Emma Garcia
Chugga chugga choo choo. All aboard, as the cheerful little train chugs past the seaside, farm, forest, city, and into the station. Along the way, a flock of noisy seagulls and blackbirds, pigeons and geese hop on for the ride. Kids will have fun looking at Emma Garcia’s colorful, collaged landscapes and counting the honking, cooing, tweeting birds in this delightful board book.
I’m Going to Preschool
Illustrated by Marion Cocklico
It’s Ben’s first day at preschool—what will it be like? He’s a little nervous, but this lift-the-flap board book shows him, and young readers, that there’s nothing to be afraid of. It gives a comforting glimpse into what life at school will be like, from meeting the teacher to fun activities to making new friends.

No More Diapers
Illustrated by Marion Cocklico
Potty training is a huge rite of passage. How can you make the process easier for your child? When it’s time to ditch the diapers, this encouraging board book takes toddlers (a boy and a girl) through all the steps, from learning when they have to go, to lasting through the night, to personal hygiene. Parents will really appreciate the helpful advice on every page.

We’re Having a Baby
Illustrated by Marion Cocklico
Nancy is going to be a sister! But she wonders: how will her life change? Little ones about to become big siblings will find answers and reassurance in this board book, with its entertaining flaps to lift and tabs to pull. Special tips for parents cover how to prepare kids for the birth, divide attention properly, and involve older children with the new baby.

Look & See: Fun with Shapes
Kids can learn all about shapes as they touch, play, and explore! Bright and lively die-cut illustrations throughout this innovative concept book introduce a square frame for a picture, a peacock’s circular body, and a diamond-shaped kite. Each page features creative ideas to inspire kids to draw their own shape-filled pictures.

Look & See: Friends Are Fun!
Come spend the day with fox and his friends! Fox has lots of fun playing hide-and-seek with a chameleon; snuggling in the soft mane of a big, strong lion; lunching with a bunny; watching a butterfly take flight, and meeting bats, elephants, bears, and birds. Two die-cut eyes on the cover go throughout the book, getting smaller and smaller to fit each creature we see.
Make and Play: Dinosaurs
by Margot Channing, illustrated by Liza Lewis Long before people lived on earth, dinosaurs roamed the land, flew in the air, and swam in the sea. Meet some of these fantastic prehistoric creatures, learn all about them, and build five cool models: Diplodocus, a herbivore with the longest tail of any animal ever; the Albertosaurus, a carnivore; the water-dwelling Placochelys; the winged Pteranodon; and a dinosaur skeleton.

Make and Play: Farm Animals
by Margot Channing, illustrated by Kate and Liz Pope Come visit Rosie Glow Farm, where the fluffy sheep baa, spotted cows moo, hungry horses neigh, cheeky chickens cluck, and furry goats bleat. That’s a lot of noise! As kids meet each animal, they can create five fantastic models, imitate the sounds, and engage in imaginative play.

Little Darling’s Valentine
by Algy Craig Hall
Little Darling knows the scent of love (sweet-smelling roses), the taste of love (yummy chocolates), and the sound of love (poetry). But what is the best way for him to share that wonderful feeling on Valentine’s Day? This snuggly, cuddly, adorable book is the perfect way for kids to celebrate the holiday.

Mary Had a Little Glam
by Tammi Sauer, illustrated by Vanessa Brantley-Newton Mary has style! In this fun take on Mother Goose, fashion-forward Mary helps some childhood favorites go glam. From the kid who lives in a shoe (and dons some fab footwear) to Jack, who breaks his crown but gets a great new one, Mary’s friends look fine. But are they too well dressed for recess? Don’t worry—Mary always shows her flair for what to wear!

On Our Way Home
by Sebastien Braun
This heartfelt picture book celebrates the love between a father and his child. Together, Daddy Bear and Baby Bear walk through the forest, racing and resting and gazing at wonderful things along the way. When they arrive home, Daddy tucks his sleepy little bear into bed with a kiss and a cuddle. With its gentle, simple text and lovely art, On Our Way Home is the perfect bedtime story.

Time for a Nap
by Phillis Gershator, illustrated by David Walker
This charming and cozy entry in the Snuggle Time series is now in board format! Every day’s a busy day, with places to go, people to see, and things to do. But sometimes all that activity leaves a toddler tired and cranky. What time is it then? NAP TIME! With plenty of humor and fun, Phillis Gershator and David Walker capture a child’s resistance to some much-needed sleep—and the illustrations show little bunny throughout the days of the week, adding a concept lesson to the great message about the necessity of rest.

A Song for Gwendolyn Brooks
by Alice Faye Duncan, illustrated by Xia Gordon
With a voice both wise and witty, Gwendolyn Brooks crafted poems that captured the urban Black experience and the role of women in society. She grew up on the South Side of Chicago, her talent lovingly nurtured by her parents. Brooks ultimately published 20 books of poetry, two autobiographies, and one novel. Alice Faye Duncan has created her own song to celebrate Gwendolyn’s life and work, illuminating the tireless struggle of revision and the sweet reward of success.

Weird Animals
by Mary Kay Carson
Axolotl, sea pig, mirror spider. These are some crazy-looking critters! But no matter how bizarre or wacky, there’s a reason why animals look the way they do. These characteristics—including their colors, teeth, and behavior—help them survive. With the help of some amazing photos, Mary Kay Carson reveals that, no matter how odd, things like slime and freaky noses are more than just surface features—they’re lifesaving.

The Atlas of Flags
Text by Federico Silvestri, illustrations by Rossella Trionfetti
Why is there a maple leaf in the center of the Canadian flag? What is the eagle on the Mexican flag carrying in its beak? A flag is more than just a rectangle of fabric: it’s a symbol of all a country stands for. This vibrantly illustrated atlas presents every national flag in the world, continent by continent, along with information on their colors, patterns, characteristics, and history.

Up and Away!
How Two Brothers Invented the Hot-Air Balloon
by Jason Henry
Centuries before the Wright Brothers, Joseph and Etienne Montgolfier sent a flying machine into the skies—a hot-air balloon. This beautifully illustrated picture book tells the story of how Joseph and Etienne invented the balloon, King Louis XVI’s visit to see it fly, and the three animals—a rooster, a duck, and a sheep—who became its very first passengers. Go up, up, and away with them on their magical journey!

Car Record Breakers
by Paul Virr
The world’s fastest race cars. Extreme autos. Cutting-edge hypercars. Kids can’t get enough motor action, and this great nonfiction book is crammed with facts, stats, and full-page images of the most amazing automobiles on Earth—and beyond. From the Lunar Roving Vehicle, the first car on the Moon, to Bloodhound SSC, which may become the first car to exceed 1,000 mph, it’s all here in thrilling detail!

Alexander Hamilton
His Life, Our History
by Susan Blackaby
Filled to the brim with photos, quotes, and maps, Alexander Hamilton is sure to be a hit with fans of both history and the smash Broadway musical. Engagingly written, it follows Hamilton from childhood to his tragic death, focusing on his hard work, cunning, and opportunistic zeal. It also shows Hamilton’s darker side; his recklessness and the tragedies that ultimately kept him from even greater heights.

First Snow
by Bernette Ford, illustrated by Sebastien Braun
In the early winter cold, snow begins to fall—at first slowly, and then in big flakes, swirling and twirling. Across the glistening meadow, in the magical moonlit night, a small bunny and his siblings explore the wonders of this newly snow-filled world. Bernette Ford’s lyrical text and Sebastien Braun’s stunning illustrations capture the joy and beauty of the season’s first snowfall.

Little Santa’s Christmas
by Alyg Craig Hall
Who’s that wriggling down the chimney, and rustling behind the Christmas tree? It’s LITTLE SANTA, lying on her sled with a sack full of surprises—like drums, choo-choo trains, and a bouncy ball. And when Little Santa finishes her busy Christmas ride there’s something special waiting for her at home: cookies, milk, and a BIG hug! This sweet and simple holiday story will delight small children.

Snow Babies
by Laura Ellen Anderson
They’re so soft, fluffy, cuddly, and cute—and they all love snowy places. Time to meet the snow babies! From roly-poly polar bear cubs happy at play to seal pups snuggling and penguin chicks waddling, there’s nothing more adorable than these baby animals. Toddlers will love Laura Ellen Anderson’s bold pictures.

Who’s That Hiding in the Chimney?
by Nick Pierce, illustrated by Isobel Lundie
It’s Christmas Eve, and magical things are happening everywhere. But can you figure out which snowy creature stands guard outside Santa’s grotto, what busy little toymaker hammers and taps in Santa’s workshop, and which jolly figure will be coming soon to a chimney near you? This is the perfect book for putting under the Christmas tree!

The Book of Winter
by Agnese Baruzzi
Brrr! Winter’s come and it’s shivery cold. But it’s also fun to play in the snow, drink hot chocolate by the fire, go on a sleigh ride, and, of course, celebrate Christmas with a tree and gifts. Just remember to wear your coat, hat, scarves, and gloves!

Little Snowflake
by Antonio Boalda
One winter morning, Little Snowflake peeks out from a cloud. What a beautiful day to play! But where can he find someone to join him? Captured by the wind, Little Snowflake flies over the sea, forest, and city, growing sadder—until he falls into a garden and meets a special friend. This poetic story, gorgeously illustrated and with flaps to lift throughout, will touch every child’s heart.
