CARIBBEAN CHILDHOOD: Traumas & Triumphs
Volume 2, March 2020

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Summer Edward: The Nature of Belonging: Making a Home for Children’s Literature in the Caribbean’s Literary Landscape
   - Letter to a Child Leaving Trinidad

2. Kei Miller: Writing Taught Me How to Think
   - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
   - Augustown, and In Nearby Bushes

3. Olive Senior: Creating a Climate that Embraces Our National Culture
   - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
   - Anna Carries Water, Birthday Suit, and Boonoonoonous Hair

4. Elpedio Robinson: Music as Inspiration
   - An Interview with Juleus Ghunta and Opal Palmer Adisa
   - Medley of the Past, Symphony of Notes, and Nature’s Shelter

5. Pamela Mordecai: We had no Caribbean Limericks!
   - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
   - De Book of Mary: A Performance Poem

6. Michael Abrahams and Juleus Ghunta: Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) in Jamaica
   - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
   - Until Judgement Comes
   - Juleus’ ACEs Workshop at Campion College, 2019 (1), at (2) Boundbrook Infant School, 2019

7. Shauna Morgan: We Are Expected to Honour Our Abusers
   - An Interview with Juleus Ghunta
   - 2 poems: Sugar Babies, and Fear of Dogs & Other Animals

8. Tanya Batson-Savage: Blue Banyan Publishing Affordable Books
   - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
   - Dreams Beyond the Shore, In this Breadfruit Kingdom, Jamaica Alphabet Cards, and
9. Linda M Deane: A Pawpaw to the Light: Adventures in Sharing Poetry with Children
   - Omolaru is Bowling, and She was Dancing

10. A-dZiko Simba Gegele: Rooted in Their Lives as Afrikans
    - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
    - Dead Dogs and Other Miss D’Meanner’s All Over Again

11. Barbara Arrindell: Create Stories that Remind Us of What We Went Through
    - Scholarship Child
    - The Legend of Bats Cave and Other Stories

12. Marsha Gomes-McKie: Promoting SCBWI in the Caribbean
    - An Interview with Juleus Ghunta
    - I Don’t Remember, Duck in the Red Boots, and Why are Snails Always Tired in the Day?

13. Joanne C Hillhouse: Caribbean Children Need as Many Stories as There are Tastes
    - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
    - Lost! A Caribbean Sea Adventure, and The Boy from Willow Bend

14. Carol Ottley-Mitchell (CaribbeanReads): Reflecting the Realities of Caribbean Children
    - Adventure at Brimstone Hill, Sweet Victory, and The Protector’s Pledge

15. Romaine McNiel: Shed the Old to Embrace the New
    - An Interview with Juleus Ghunta
    - Birth, The Nest, The Nurturing, and Truth

16. Joane Dowdy: Storyboards for Films
    - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
    - Olympic Hero: Lennox Kilgour’s Story, What Makes One a Hero?

17. Nathan Gibbons: Use Creative Arts to Connect With Children
    - Lizard and Moon, and Daddy’s Bike

18. Tanya Shirley: Allow the Poem to Go Where it Wants
    - An Interview with Opal Palmer Adisa
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Number</th>
<th>Author</th>
<th>Title and Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>19.</td>
<td>Trish Cooke</td>
<td>My Books are Inspired by Real Life</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>21.</td>
<td>Yvonne Weekes</td>
<td>I Want My Grandchildren to Be Confident and Bold</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22.</td>
<td>Andrea Bowman</td>
<td>Engendering a Tradition of Excellence</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>An Interview with Bronty Liverpool-Williams</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>23.</td>
<td>Kya Nailah Knight</td>
<td>Fighting for Women’s Rights</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>The Engineered Silencing of Mary-Ann</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>An Interview with Colbert I Nepaulsingh</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>The BBC and the Development of Anglophone Caribbean Literature, 1943-1958</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>